USEN CORPORATION

Regarding Inquiries from the Shareholders of our company

The purpose of this letter is to answer relatively common questions that we have received from the shareholders of our company regarding the tender offer of the shares of common stock of our company (“Shares”) by Kabushiki Kaisha U-NEXT SPC1 (“Tender Offer”).

We note that our company’s board of directors has resolved in the board meeting of February 13, 2017 to favor the Tender Offer and recommend participation by the shareholders of our company to the same.

It is appreciated if the shareholders of our company examine the following questions and answers and participate in the Tender Offer.

1	What is the opinion of USEN Corporation (“USEN”) on the Tender Offer?
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ Our company’s board of directors has resolved in the board meeting of February 13, 2017 to favor the Tender Offer and recommend participation by the shareholders of our company to the same.✓ It is appreciated if the shareholders of our company participate in the Tender Offer.✓ For the details on the reasons why participation to the Tender Offer is recommended, please refer to the Tender Offer Explanatory Statement or “Position statement and recommendation to tender in response to the tender offer for share certificates of USEN Corporation by Kabushiki Kaisha U-NEXT SPC1 and announcement of execution of the basic agreement for consolidation with U-NEXT Co., Ltd.” on February, 13, 2017. http://www.usen.com/news/cms_data/news/images/2017/20170216_169_3.pdf

2	What happens to shareholders of USEN who do not participate in the Tender Offer?
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">✓ If the Tender Offer is successful, the shareholders of our company who did not participate in the same will receive 461 JPY per share pursuant to a squeeze-out procedure scheduled after the Tender Offer, which is the same as the Tender Offer price.✓ In such case, according to the current schedule, you will receive the money during October 2017.✓ For details of the squeeze-out procedure, please refer to the Tender Offer Explanatory Statement or “Position statement and recommendation to tender in response to the tender offer for share certificates of USEN Corporation by Kabushiki Kaisha U-NEXT SPC1 and announcement of execution of the basic agreement for consolidation with

- Although the Tender Offer will be conducted in accordance with the procedures and information disclosure standards prescribed in the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, these procedures and information disclosure standards may differ from the procedures and information disclosure standards in the United States. In particular, Sections 13(e) and 14(d) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules prescribed thereunder do not apply to the Tender Offer, and the Tender Offer does not conform to those procedures and standards. All financial information contained in this guidance has been prepared in accordance with Japanese accounting standards, and not in accordance with U.S. accounting standards, and may not be comparable to the financial information of U.S. companies. It may be difficult to enforce any right or claim arising under U.S. federal securities laws because Kabushiki Kaisha U-NEXT SPC1 and our company are companies established outside the United States and their directors are non-U.S. residents. Shareholders may not be able to sue a company outside the United States and its directors in a non-U.S. court for violations of the U.S. federal securities laws. There is also no guarantee that shareholders will be able to compel a company outside the United States and its subsidiaries and affiliated companies to subject themselves to a U.S. court's jurisdiction.
- Unless otherwise specified, all procedures relating to the Tender Offer are to be conducted entirely in Japanese. If all or any portion of the documentation relating to the Tender Offer is prepared in English and there is any inconsistency between the English documentation and the Japanese documentation, the Japanese documentation will prevail.
- Each of the financial advisors (including their affiliated companies) to Kabushiki Kaisha U-NEXT SPC1 and to our company may, in its ordinary course of business, purchase shares in our company for its own account or for the account of its clients prior to the Tender Offer or during the period of the Tender Offer outside the Tender Offer in accordance with the requirements of Rule 14e-5(b) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or take actions for such purchase to the extent permitted by financial instruments and exchange related laws and regulations and other applicable laws and regulations of Japan. If any information concerning such purchase is disclosed in Japan, the relevant financial advisor will disclose such information on its English website (or by any other means of public disclosure).
